MY DORM STORE

- Brand created by students with residential experience to provide services for new students who plan to live in dorms.
- Promotes products such as sleeping packages and laundry packages.
- Students are provided with everything they need for moving into a dorm.
- The brand's purpose is to provide students with a more convenient dorm experience, giving them a sense that the dorm is like their home.

TARGET CUSTOMER

- For all year local students

- Example
  - Local Students who live far away from the university.
  - Students who likes to spend time with others around them.
  - Students with low income and wants to minimize their living expenses etc.

BUSINESS MODEL

- B2C enterprise selling move-in and seasonal packages for students transitioning to dorm life or new residences.
- Established in 2022, inspired by the founder's university experience.
- Primary sales through an online website; secondary channels include pop-up shops and University of Toronto Bookstore collaborations.
- Simplifies shopping with convenience solutions and engages students for authentic marketing.

CHALLENGE

- Customer Challenge: Seasonal demand peaks during move-in periods, with low engagement and product relevance off-season.
- Competition Challenge: Competes with recognized retailers offering similar products at competitive prices with better logistics.
- Company Challenge: Managing peak demand, inventory, and cash flow fluctuations limits scalability and reinvestment.

2025 GOAL

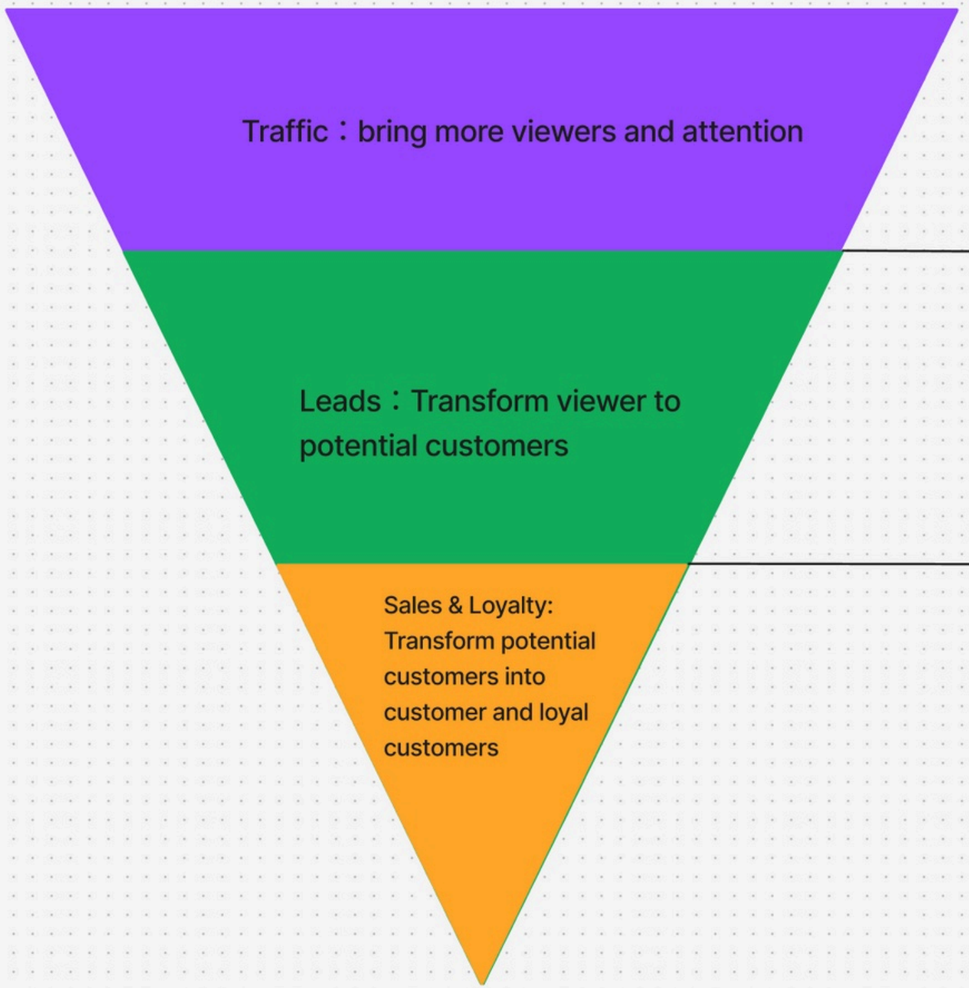

Increase brand awareness (from 30%) and sales growth (by 20%).

- Digital Strategies: Leverage organic content and paid ads.
- Non-Digital Strategies: Conduct on-campus initiatives to build trust and loyalty.
- Integrated Approach: Combine digital and non-digital efforts to grow the customer base and meet awareness goals.
